

Factsheet

The main objective of this study was to assess knowledge and attitudes of Georgian population towards various policy issues in the country, including foreign policy, elections, gender and sexual harassment issues. This poll intended to help various stakeholders to diagnose and address different issues of public concern, to foster the development of more responsive policies and governance

Population: Adult population (18 years old and over), excluding the populations living in territories affected by military conflict (South Ossetia and Abkhazia). Besides nationwide, data is representative of Tbilisi, large urban, small urban, rural areas of Georgia and minority settlements.

Sample Design: Multi-stage cluster sampling with preliminary stratification.

Sample Size: 2,298 respondents.

Response rate: 48%

Survey mode: Computer-assisted personal interview (CAPI).

Interview languages: Georgian, Armenia and Azerbaijani.

Fieldwork Dates: November 29, 2017 to December 19, 2017.

Results are weighted.