

Factsheet

The main objective of this study was to assess knowledge and attitudes of Georgian population towards various policy issues in the country.

Population: Georgian-speaking adults (18 years old and over), excluding the populations living in territories affected by military conflict (South Ossetia and Abkhazia).

Sample Design: Multi-stage cluster sampling with preliminary stratification.

Sample Size: 1843 respondents.

Response rate: 48%.

Survey mode: Computer-assisted personal interview (CAPI).

Interview languages: Georgian

Fieldwork Dates: March 3, 2018 to March 27, 2018.

Results are weighted.